

Temple Avodah and the Friedberg JCC

Presents...

UJA-Federation of New York's
Partners in Caring

Partners in Caring is a collaboration of UJA Federation of New York, the Barry and Florence Friedberg JCC and local South Shore synagogues bringing a wide array of social work support services to the Jewish community.

The Partners in Caring Social Worker is available to offer consultation and training to the synagogue staff and lay leaders and direct support services to the synagogue congregants. The services offered by the PIC Social Worker include:

- Short Term Counseling
- Crisis Intervention
- Information and Referral
- Continuing Education Programs
- Days of Learning
- Volunteerism Opportunities which include service projects and collection drives

To access these confidential and comprehensive services, please contact our Partners in Caring Social Worker, Gloria Lebeaux, LCSW-R, Director of Social Work, 516-634-4010 or glebeaux@friedbergjcc.org
