

Oceanside/Island Park

HERALD

Ready for picking
Page 24

Showing pride on Patriot Day
Page 3

Friedberg JCC holds open house
Page 17

VOL. 51 NO. 38

SEPTEMBER 22-28, 2016

$1.00

14

EVENTS AND ACTIVITIES

COMMUNITY UPDATE

A time for reflection

In observance of Selichot, Temple Avodah in Oceanside will be showing a documentary called "A Voice Among the Silent," on Saturday, Sept. 24 at 6 pm in the Rudich Building. This film tells the little-known story of diplomat and scholar James McDonald and his humanitarian efforts to help rescue Jewish refugees fleeing Nazi Germany. McDonald's story was almost lost to history until his diaries were discovered in 2003. A light dairy buffet dinner will be served. Please bring a side dish or dessert. The cost is $18/non-temple members and fee for members. RSVP by emailing: sheilalondon.sister-

Temple Avodah
3050 Oceanside Road, Oceanside
(516) 766-6809

Preparing for the College Years

Wednesday, Oct. 26, at 7:30 pm. This FREE seminar is for middle school and high school students, ages 12-18, and their parents, and will explore important issues now in preparation for the college years. A panel of experts help you start now to get ready, get organized, be healthy, and make smart decisions. This event is open to the public and is presented by TANG: Temple Avodah Networking Group and Temple Avodah. Register online at www.avodah.org or call 516-766-6809, x101.