Preparing for the College Years

Oct. 26, at 7:30 p.m. This FREE seminar is for middle school and high school students, ages 12-18, and their parents, and will explore important issues now in preparation for the college years. A panel of experts help you start now to get ready, get organized, be healthy, and make smart decisions. This event is open to the public and is presented by TANG: Temple Avodah Networking Group and Temple Avodah.
