

NEW DATE
April 26th

Temple Avodah

Social Action Committee presents:

“Welcome the Stranger...

A Jewish response to bans on immigration and refugees”

Immigration lawyer and Temple Avodah congregant Rachel Baskin will explain current U.S. policies regarding immigration and how the President’s recent executive orders could affect immigrants, their families, and our country.

Learn what Jewish groups around the country are doing to welcome the stranger in the face of bans and deportations.

Date: Wednesday, April 26th

Time: 7:00 p.m.

Where: Temple Avodah Atrium

Community Event – No Cost

Open to everyone interested in understanding and exploring this important topic.